Synopsis

In The Birds, a forgotten loaf of bread sparks a comedic clash between a lively group of feathered characters. The pigeons, finches, parrots, and robins each bring their unique personalities—and hilarious talents—to the picnic, as they squabble, sing, dance, and mime their way through a battle for the ultimate prize: the bread.

The pigeons try to guard their find, only to be outsmarted by the finches. The parrots add their flair with clever quips and mime, while the robins swoop in to assert their dominance as masters of all the arts. Amid chaotic karaoke, terrible dancing, and over-the-top performances, each bird species tries to prove they deserve the bread the most.

Have fun with it!

THE BIRDS

10 Character Script

Written by Ian Breeds

A loaf of bread wrapped in plastic sits on the floor. Three pigeons enter making whooping noises.

PIP

Breakfast is served.

PERCY

Wait there's something wrapped around it.

POPPY

What is this black magic?

Two parrots enter.

PIP

Quick hide the food.

The pigeons huddle around the food.

PEPPER

What's up!

POLLY

What's happening pi-ge-on-es

PEPPER

What you got there?

The pigeons all begin to who.

POLLY

You that's who.

PERCY

Nothing, we have nothing.

Three little finches rush in and steal the bread from behind them.

FIFI

Oh my favourite.

FERN

I'm so hungry I could die.

FIZZ

Eat it fast before they see.

POPPY

They stole our bread.

FIFI

We didn't steal anything.

FERN

It was on the floor.

FIZZ

First come first served!

PIP

And we were first.

PEPPER

You said you didn't have anything!

POLLY

You liars!

Two Robins enter.

RUSTY

Good morning everyone.

ROSIE

How is everyone today?

PERCY

They stole from us!

FIFI

It was just on the floor.

FERN

I don't see your names on it.

FIZZ

Possession is nine tenths of the law!

PEPPER

And they told us they didn't have anything.

POLLY

They lied to us and made us look like fools!

POPPY
